We have no data by which is compare the population of the present 7th with the same two years since. But it is abvious to every one that the increase has been the smailest of any ward in the city. There has been great improvement, but very little addition to the popmation-probably not app in the past two years: the increase in the old 1st being mostly in lin

Present is.
There is one other error in calculating the population from the vote. Most of the board ing houses are in the 7th ward, and of this class there is a much larger proportion of voters than Unducting therefore the great increase of the ed and 4th wards, tince last November, and allowing a proper percentage for business men and elecks who hoard in the 7th ward, there is ready no great difference in the comparative vote.

I am fully satisfied that the census of the 7th ward was correctly taken, as the unnest pains were taken to make it accurate, and that if a new count should be taken, it would not differ materially from that already taken.

The Gatled Jace Winces. The exposure of the identification of Mr Cross and his peculiar friends and supporters with the ancient, once and again defeated, but persistent Barstow faction, is having a very serious effect upon the nerves of the conductors of the Democratic presses generally; and, in various tones, they cry for mercy. It would give them unspeakable satisfaction if the people of this State would only forget the Election Frauds and Forgeries, the School Land Swindles, the Treasury Defalcations, the proposed Rebellion, of that old dynasty, so that, with calumny against the Republican candidates, with promises of reform and pleages of economy, this old gang of plunderers which nominated Mr. Cross, may again get into place and power.

It cannot be done, gentlemen! You have made a rough bed for yourselves, and must oc cupy it, be your slumbers disturbed never sc much. We mean to let the people understand just what you are, and to expose your pretensions. If, after their past experience of you, the people of Wisconsin choose to place their interests and their treasury in your hands again, so be it. We do not mean to help them to do it, but to prevent it, if possible.

Beware of Francis.

Our friends in Minnesota have no fears of being beaten, except it be by frauds on the ballotbox. There is too much reason to fear that money will be sent in from abroad to be used to import votes, to make Minnesota virtually a Slave State. The Minnesotian thus sounds the abru:

THE PROPOSED SCHEME OF ELECTION FRANCIS The Proposed Scheme of Election Frage in Minnesota.—There has been considerable said concerning the ten days' qualification chause for voting, at the first election under the new Constitution. We believed at the time of the adoption of this measure, that it would operate about equally, so far as the success of the two parties was concerned, if carried out honesdy. We are still of that opinion. But the report has reached us that our unscrupulous opponents are preparing for a system of wholesale fraud by the colonization of voters at all the accessible points in the Territory. the Territory.

Considering the past history of the domocratic faction which is now trying to regain power in this State, it is well to remind our friends in the northwest, and in the remote and newer counties generally, that attempts at a repetition o the Bridge Creek and Waupaces frauds may reasonably be apprehended this fall, and should be guarded against. Our Minnesota friends are awake to the necessity—let not the Republican of this State be behind in watchfulness.

By the bye, we have not learned whether the pamphlet copies of the new election law of inst vinter have been printed and sent out by the Secretary of State to the various counties. Can the Madison Journal inform us?

The Issue Presented.

The Democrats of Marquette county, recently in Convention assembled, took ground as fol-

Resolved. That the letter of James Buchanan to the "Forty Clergymen" contains the true democratic and constitutional ductrine in relation to the powers of the General Government over Territorial affairs; is a complete violication of his policy in Kaneas, and meets with our hearty and unanimous approval. That the election of James B. Gross and his associates upon the democratic ticket, is nessessary to the re-establishment of peace and harmony between the State of Wisconsin and the General Government &c.

Courageous, to say the least. Firstly, the democrats of Marquette Co. go the whole doctrine of the nation lity of slavery, as declared by Mr. Buchanau, to the infinite disgrace of the nation in the eyes of the civilized world; and secondly, inasmuch as the Burstow faction of their foundry, the "Eagle," in this city. It is their party have the ear and confidence of the general government, these gentlemen, resolve that the triumph of that faction in the State is necessary to bring about harmony. Exactly .--We want to hear from the people of Marquette county on that issue.

ANOTHER DEAD BOLT.

The Honest Germans Cannot Support the Burstow Ticket!! (From the Watertown Anzeiger, 25th inst.) (From the Watertown Anzelger, 26th Inst.)
We had, after the Democratic State Couvention, placed the Democratic ticket at the head of our cotunns, without having, thus far, made any particular expression in regard to the same. But as there is a time for all things—a time for speech and a time for silence—we have concluded to break the latter to-day, and to lay our opinious before the readers of the Anzelger. We cannot support the ticket. We cannot because we are friends of genuine Democracy, progress and reform.

We have weighted well the step which we now make, and find it is the best, under existing circumstances, though we may be ruined in a business point of view, in consequence of it. business point of view, in consequence of it. From the outset, the Anxioger has not been the from the outset, the Anxioger has not been the tool of any political clique; we need not, thore fore, hear bring accused of unfaithfulness to any such, if we refuse our support to the present bemocratic State ticket, which really is nothing but the dicket of the Barstow clique and of the Forty Thieves. Barstow and the Forty Thieves are not the Democracy of Wisconsin; they are the enemies of the Democracy, since they have brought that party into discredit; they are the enemies of the people since they have enriched themselves at the expense of the people, and are purposing still further to enrich themselves in the same manner. This last circumstance is what binds them so tenaciously together, and causes them to seek to secure the nominations at every convention. It, previous to the convent every convention. If, previous to the conven-tion, we relied a warning voice against the Forty Thieves, and sought to secure the nomination of independent and irreproachable men, it was not in consequence of any mere personal preferences, but because we were really earnest for the suc-cess of the Damocracy. But how are the de-mands of the honorable and upright Domocrats answord, how was the err for referm and for rands of the honorable and upright Domocrats answered, how was the cry for reform and for economy in the administration of the Government, received? The ticket of the Forty Thieves was the answer. We oppose that ticket. It will and must de defeated, and must, at every luture election, if it is again brought forward, begain defeated—onth the last man of the Baratow Regiment is driven out of the party. The Ballut-box is the only weapon against these leaches. Emery & Co., seedsmen, of Chicago, had a vev large and well arranged variety of seeds, in ottles. Samples of Wisconsin corn were present in goodly number, one exhibitor, Geo. Pickering, of furnaces, the name should be H. W. Goodrich, showing seven kinds. Of grain, up to the time of closing the books when everything ought to have been on the ground, the show was miserably meagre. The view in making us say "viat furnaces," we can't nly noticeable thing we saw was a bag of very imagine. There was also a sad jumble of Marble andsome winter wheat, of which J. W. Boyce, and of Iron Safes. The Badger State Safe, by of Albion, Dane Co., raised 11 acres, and 27 bushels to the acre. The Dane county average scarcely comes up to that! 8. Representing the closing of the war of As a general remark, we may say that the show of cattle is not equal to that made last year, in all the desirable clements of such an exhibition. The Durhams made a grand show, doing redit to their owners and to the State, though even here our farmers could have done better if they chose. But the display of Devons was neagre, and of Herefords and Ayrshires we saw none. In justice to the exhibitors, however, we should say that, in a great many cases, they had been unable to obtain their class sickets to be attached to their animals, so that visitors could carn nothing of them unless the owner or attenduat happened to be preent. We took a few notes under these untavorable circumstances.

" Nero"-shown by W. J. Bentley, a 4 year old bull, is a fine animal. He was from Ball & Co.'s herd of Durhams, well known at former this city, which has carried off so many prizes, Pairs. J. Q. Why Don't the Furmers Pay The Missouri Democrat has a very sensible usiness article upon the subject of farmers paying up the indebtedness which is owing to merapple-raising friend, STARIS, of Whitewater, chants. The suggestions which are contained in this article, are not confined to the region of St from they extend, so far as their practical application is concerned, to this community. The article reads as follows:

A very intelligent merchant of St. Louis, yes, erday remarked to us that the indebtedness of the country merchants of Missourl, Illinois an lows, to the merchants and manufacturers of St Lows, to the merchants and manufacturers of the Louis, at the present time, could not be less than twenty millions of dollars, and that if they would now pay one fourth of what they owe, St. Louis would have as easy a money market as any in the U. 2.

But the country merchants do not pay the St. Louis merchants; and they allege as the reason, that the tempers do not now them—that many old. ester, Wis., Mitchell & Co., of Racine, Winenes-

Louis merchants; and they allege as the reason, that the farmers do not pay them—that many of their customers owe them etill, on last year's account, and that until they pay, it is impossible for St. Louis merchants to get their dues. Now, this may be a very good way to account fer the fact that the country merchants are not paying as promptly as they shoeld; but it is certainly no excuse for their failing to meet their obligations to St. Louis merchants. A country merchant has no right to impose thus on the parties who furnish him goods with which he conducts his business and makes his living. He selemnly promises to pay for them in two, four machines usually are for sale, had another which solemnly promises to pay for them in two, four and six months. Perhaps he gets the assurance that eight months' time, on a part of his indebtcontest, will not be seriously objected to. But how does he perform?

He takes his goods home, opens his store, makes a laming show, and invites and urges the farmers, and the farmers' wives, and sone and tangitiers, to buy as much as they want, on credit, without even a bint of pay-day, or of the debta he has promised to make to the St. Louis increhants. The farmers are often taken by surprise by the bills rendered by the country morchant. Parties who buy on credit, always are an ill wind that blows nobody good-and the the rain of Thursday night at least rested this chant. Parties who buy on credit, always are country farmes who of the come in. And finding them so much larger than they expected, they coolly tell the country merchant that they are not prepared to pay, and he must take their notes payable in one year for the amount. And the country merchant, for fear of losing so good a customer, for lear of offending a man whose family buys so liberally of him, and for lear of a rival score-keeper in the village getting all that man's custom next year, quietly acquiesces in the arrangement, defrands the St. Louis merchant, and takes a long note lor that for which he is entitled to cash. The result is, he is disappointed; he disappoints the St. Louis merchant dianappoints the goods; the St. Louis merchant dianappoints his banker, and the St. Louis banker, being burthened, with a load of local accommodations, cannot advance money on produce bills, by which the famuers' products are to be conurprised when the bills come in. And finding and durable fences, which can be afforded at culled an 8 horse engine, but does 'better work -upright boiler-burns coal, and very little of it-is a very perfect piece of workmanship-and by which the farmers' products are to be con veyed to the market, and the final result is, no shipments of produce, no buyers of produce, and consequent low prices and revious disappoint-ment in returns of the crop to farmers themselves. made at Fitchburg, Mass., and a portable engine

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES - AUSPIDIOUS INDICA TRESIGNS OF THE TIMES—ACEPICIOUS INDICATIONS.—The indications from every portion of the State are cheering for the Republicans. The loathing of corruption and fraud among the Germans is driving them by thousands from the support of Cross. We publish elsewhere an article translated from the Watertown Anziger, an influential Democratic German paper, that has bauled down the Cross flag, and repudiates the entire ticket. The Milwaukee Grad Aus conentire ticket. The Milwaukee Grad Aus continues to pour bot shot into the rotten hull of Barstowism; and the Racine Volkshatt, which last year supported Bachanan, puts up the entire Republican ticket and gives it a hearty support. In the western portion of the State, the best feeling prevails among the Republicans. A prominent citizen of Grant County, well posted in the politics of the locality, informs us that old Grant is good for 1200 Republican majority this fall. Barstowism and Buchanan's recent letter deciving the Constitution a pro-slavery document are too much for the people to hear. Keep the ball in motion. Let the watchword ba, Randall and Reform.—Madison Journal.

THE BARSTOW PLATFORM .- It is reported that

Co., N. Y., and with another of the same size, the product of a single milking. They had also some delicious butter. But does it not shame our tarmers 7—this bringing Oneida County butter to Chicago, and thence to the heart of Wisconsin, to compete for premiums with them.

The vegetables on exhibition were very fine—the show could not be beaten anywhere, we think. Potatoes in great variety—some exhibitions

THX Barstow Platform.—It is reported that the recent gathering of the Barstow State Central Committee, candidates and editors, in Minute, and Jones was adopted, which may be summarily condensed as follows:

Resolved, That we will the consolved That we will not only lie ourselves, individually, but mutually circulate each other's lies till the close of the campaign.

Unanimously adopted. Tremendous applause The editors of the News, Argus, and Janesville Standard could hardly contain themselves for Standard could hardly contain themselves fo cors having nine or ten kinds—from the delicate enthusiasm. When the excitement had a little "lady-fingers" passing the fine "pink-eyes," subsided the meeting adjourned to liquor.—
